REMARKS.

THIS collection exhibits the labor of a painstaking print connoisseur for the last fifty years. There is hardly a print collector or dealer in this country who did not know the late Edmund Law Rogers. His object, in forming this collection, was to make it a representative one, and we feel that, when our patrons have viewed it, they will agree with us that he accomplished his purpose. Endowed with the facilities for purchasing when an opportunity offered, and having the great print collections that have been scattered during the past half century to pick from, it is not surprising that this Catalogue is replete with engravings in the finest possible condition. We feel certain that seldom, if ever, has there been found at any public sale held in this country so many and excellent specimens of Rembrandt, Durer, Marc Antonio, Goltzius, Van Leyden, Strange, Sharp, Wille, Müller, Bartolozzi, Longhi, Drevet, Edelinck, Bervic, Bolswert, Browne, Desnoyers, Houbraken, Mandel, Morghen, Nanteuil, Pontius, Schmidt, Toschi, Woollett, and, in fact, of all the representative early and modern masters of the burin.

In describing the prints in the Catalogue, I have tried to convey a faithful idea of their state and condition, but would much rather that our patrons call and view the engravings themselves.

STAN. V. HENKELS.
